

Staying in Today

I said sorry to the sun as I

Closed the curtains

'cause it had to be done

One thing's for certain

That I

Need some shade

To hide myself away

Stayin' in today

Stayin' in today

Stayin' in today

Stayin' in today

So I hope you don't mind if I

Sit this one out

Got my stereo up and my

TV turned down

'cause there's nothin' on

Don't matter anyway

Apologise to the sky and the

Birds if they're singing

For wasting their time and

Whoever's ringin'

My front door bell

Can go to hell I say

Stayin in today

Stayin in today

Stayin' in today

Stayin' in today

Stayin' in today

Stayin' in Today

No I'm not goin' out

I'm stayin' at home

I'll do what I want

My time is my own,

Some people might say

("what a terrible waste")
